Mrs. L. R. Craig entertained quite a number of young folks Thursday evening in honor of her guests, Misses Emily and Mary Craig of Columbia. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mesdames Rod Carmichael, Ola McNair, W. Murchison and W. C. Tolar.

Negroes compose some queer telegrams and sometimes send them to names that sound fictitious. A colored girl once handed in a message reading like this: "Don't you all meet nobody at the train but me." This was addressed to "Cat-eye" care of "Clover Leaf Colored Club," and she signed it: "U-all Knows Me."

The rather queer looking colored man, calling himself a "corn doctor," who has been a familiar figure on the streets for some weeks, left town in a hurry one day this week. The "doctor" was charged with malpractice and was to have been given a trial before Mayor McLaurin Monday morning, but when his case was called he could not be found.

Telegrams are, as a rule, serious. There is, nevertheless, the humorous side also. An old colored woman had once received bad news in a telegram. Every time that she saw the telegraph operator on the street, she would exclaim: Oh, "Lord dere comes dat telegram man". "Fo Gawd, white man, git away from here, don't you alls go and gimme any telegrams." "Dere's three kinds of white folks I sure is scared of, dey is de telegram man, de doctor and de yunderfaker. I don't want no truck wid airy ob youse."

Miss Carrie Bell of Dunn, N. C., is visiting her brother, G. H. Bell.

Mrs. Walter Freeman and daughter, Miss Eloise of Morehead City, N. C., are visiting Mrs. Freeman's father, J. R. Hatch.

A Sunday school teacher had been describing to her pupils the joys of heaven. At the close of the lesson she asked: "How many would like to go to heaven?" All, save one, raised their hands. Turning to the exception, the teacher asked: "Surely, you don't want to go to hell?" The youngster nodded his head vigorously. "Sure, I do," he asserted. "My father said that's where business has gone, and I want to go in business."

To Mr. E. P. Lee of Hamer belongs the honor of establishing a new record in early sweet potatoes. Mr. Lee brought to The Herald office Tuesday three large Porto Rico yams weighing four pounds. The potatoes were set out April 19th and are ready for market. Mr. Lee has an acre from which he expects a yield of 150 bushels, and he says if he could keep them until September 1st he thinks the yield would be 200 bushels or more. Mr. Lee has proved that there is money in sweet potatoes.

Miss Jewell Hamer of Tampa, Fla., has returned home after spending a month with her sister, Mrs. John Carmichael.

Bob Oliver was exhibiting on the streets Tuesday a jar of genuine boll weevils. Mr. Oliver found them on a plantation near the state line. When he found them they resembled small worms. Later they sprouted wings and when they shed their wings, lo, and behold, it was a genuine boll weevil. Mr. Oliver says the boll weevil does not like tobacco, and while he has not had an opportunity to try the experiment, yet he believes that every fourth row planted in tobacco will drive the boll weevil away. He found in Georgia where a man had planted the fence jans in tobacco for personal use, the weevils had destroyed the cotton field but did not touch the cotton near the tobacco rows. Mr. Oliver says he is going to try the experiment if the weevil invades his domain.

BOY IS PAINFULLY CUT.

Thirteen-year-old Fletcher Roberts son of Mr. J. H. Roberts, was painfully cut Sunday night by Albert Todd, a boy about 16 years old. Todd works at the Cotton Mill. The boys were gathered at the Holiness tent in the rear of Morris Fass' store and following a dispute blows were exchanged. When the fight was over it was found that young Roberts had a severe knife wound just above the heart. The blade penetrated the cavity, but the attending physician, Dr. Craig, says the boy will recover if complications do not arise. The Todd boy is in jail awaiting the result of the Roberts boy's wounds.

The editor feels very much indebted to Mr. J. S. Fair for a very fine union which was brought in yesterday.

Mr. J. W. Robertson had as his guests Tuesday Messrs. J. Ross McNeal of Norfolk; Will McNeal, of Savannah; H. W. Phillips of Hardeeville, S. C., and H. B. Phillips of Fairmont. The Messrs. McNeal are engaged in the hardware business in Norfolk but have extensive saw mill interests in Hardeeville. Mr. Phillips, who is a son of Mr. H. B. Phillips of Fairmont, also has large lumber interests in Hardeeville. They were looking over the various plants of Jackson Bros. Co., and left that afternoon for Fairmont where they will be the guests of Mr. H. B. Phillips.

Mrs. Mary Galloway Wallace.

Mrs. Mary Galloway Wallace of Hartsville died last Saturday morning at an early hour, in an infirmary at Florence. After several months of suffering her condition became alarming and a few days ago she was moved from her home in the hope of staying the ravages of the disease. Mrs. Wallace is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Mary Galloway, the third daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James S. Galloway of the Dothan section of this county. She was a hightoned christian lady, consistent member of the Methodist church for more than 30 years, possessing a charming and pleasing disposition that made friends of all her acquaintances. Deceased was about 47 years of age. Several years ago she became the second wife of Mr. Barney Wallace of McColl, after which they moved to Hartsville where they made their home until her death. Mrs. Wallace's remains reached Dillon on Sunday morning from Florence and were immediately taken to Dothan cemetery where she was laid to rest by the side of her late father and mother. The large gathering of relatives and friends was a testimonial to her popularity. The active pallbearers were Dr. J. C. Ellen, W. E. Hall, A. P. Betha, A. V. Betha, J. M. Rogers and Pierce Rogers. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. E. Z. James, of Little Rock. Besides her bereaved husband and little 5-year old daughter, Mary Louise, deceased leaves the following brothers and sisters: H. L. Galloway, Clio; Jas. A. Galloway, Cadet; D. W. Galloway, Columbia; Mrs. Sallie McCown, Tryon, N. C.; Mrs. Rebecca Ellen, Dothan, and Mrs. Rachel G. Mayers of Florida, all of whom were present at the funeral except Mrs. Mayers, who was unable to reach here from her Florida home.

Carolina Milling Co.

DILLON, S. C.

We are now building a sweet potato house capable of curing and storing 15,000 bushels potatoes. We believe we are going to have the best curing house in South Carolina. We have contracted to buy 10,000 crates in which to cure the potatoes. Dr. Wade Stackhouse is building this house at his own expense. Our storage charges will be uniform with that of other Government houses in this section.

We renew our offer to buy No. 1 and 2 Porto Rica potatoes at 50 cents per bushel f. o. b. our house. We ask our friends to grow plenty of potatoes to fill the house. While many patches of potatoes are very grassy, they can be worked out and made to yield from 100 to 200 bushels per acre yet. Last year's crop netted $1.25 per bushel to the growers f. o. b. cars at the curing houses.

We plan some improvements at the mill which will guarantee a good cash market for any product raised on a farm. We hope to have this department in full operation in time to take care of this grain crop.

We buy and sell Fulghum Seed Oats. Bring us a sample of your seed oats and we will name you a cash price.

We buy and sell Abruzzi Rye. If you have any for sale let us have a sample.

Great Reduction In Every Line

MEETING LOW TOBACCO PRICES

THE opening of the Tobacco Markets indicates that a dollar is not going as far as we thought it would. The people have been economizing all the Spring because they felt they were not able to buy. They are needing wearing apparel, and as the low price of tobacco has cut the purchasing power of the dollar in half, so have we cut our prices in proportion. We are willing to meet you half way. We are willing to take our losses along with you, and in order to convince you of this fact we want you to come in and see what we are offering and the prices we are offering it at.

EVERY ARTICLE TAKES A LOWER PRICE

Some of our competitors may claim that we are unduly alarmed and should not act with such haste; but this is the way that we see the situation and we are going to act according to the dictates of our judgment. We want every man and woman in Dillon County to take advantage of this opportunity to supply themselves with what they need at the prices we are offering our goods. We may not be able to buy the same goods back at the same money, but we are taking this chance, and if our judgment is wrong, the loss is ours and the gain is yours. Come right along and let us prove to you that we mean what we say.
